MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Deputy Director (Plans)

THROUGH : SSA-DD/S

SUBJECT : [REDACTED] School Allowance 25X1

1. In response to your request, we wish to report that in [REDACTED] as elsewhere, the Agency follows the foreign differentials and allowances as set forth in the Standardized Regulations issued by the Department of State.

25X1

2. With respect to the Education Allowance, our regulation [REDACTED] states that:

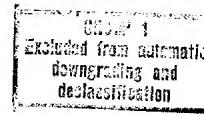

(a) The Standardized Regulations provide that where an elementary or secondary school at a post is operated by a United States Government agency, no education allowance shall be granted an otherwise eligible employee whose dependent uses another method of education or another type of educational facility, unless certain extenuating circumstances specified in the Standardized Regulations prevail.

STAT SIAI

3. The exceptions listed are:

- (1) the school's inability to accommodate the child,
- (2) excessive commuting time,
- (3) hazardous traffic for young students who have to travel by foot,
- (4) health conditions certified by medical authority,
- (5) attendance of the child in a school in the United States.
